

Lesson 58 A.
Exercises with the Passive and Active Participles.

A) Translate:

Please do not try word for word translations. Try get the general meaning of the sentences though.

1. The Guru who is being served is Shrimat Sadyojat Shankarashrama.
(use plural for respect.)
2. To that Guru worthy of being served, salutations.
3. When you come to my house, bring that book written by Rabindranath Tagore, with you.
4. Is there some milk to give to this cat which is sitting here?
5. Those memorised shlokas have increased my peace of mind. (not difficult.....think!!!!)
6. Devi Bhuvaneshwari, these flowers which have been brought by me must be accepted by you.
7. I place the fruit of the japa done by me at the feet of the Lord.
8. There is the capacity to work in the intelligent boys who are present here.
9. The monkeys who took Lanka were Rama's devotees.
10. With these lessons that have been studied by me, I'll certainly become Panini !!
11. Here is water for those flowers you brought. (translate with...accept this water...)